Jimmie Patrick "Papa Jim" Hogan of Arlington, Texas was born April 16, 1941 in Amarillo, Texas to James Patrick and Lillie Irene Jenkins Hogan. He passed from this life on March 22, 2019.

Jimmie was preceded in death by wife Theda Hogan; son David Hogan; parents. He is survived by sons Scott Hogan & wife Peggy, Jon Hogan & wife Taresa; step-son Bob Speck; step-daughter Tabby Ashmore & husband Mike; sister Barbara Greene & husband Steve; grandchildren Andy, Tyler, Becky, Allie, Chelsea, Drew, Kyna, Tory, Abry, Micah, Mark, and Allen; great grandchildren Mia, Derrick, Tianna, Ashley, William, Hailey, Jaxon, Aria, Logan, Kate, Cooper, Ginger, Lauren, Whitney, Carson, and Hannah; nephews Steven Robertson, Brad Robertson and William Clayton.

Papa Jim worked for the Star Telegram, where he made many friends across North Texas selling newspaper subscriptions. He loved to tell stories – sometimes over and over – and he never met a stranger. Jim was a staple at the local Whataburger every morning, where he could be found exchanging tales with his friends over coffee. He also loved baseball and was always keeping up with the Rangers, hoping desperately they would make it to the World Series again. Jim died strong in his Christian faith; his grandchildren found his worn bible next to his bed. Papa Jim has now happily reunited with Theda and David.

“ Our deepest sympathy is with you Allen and your family. May God bring comfort and peace to you. May he also give the family healing during this difficult time. Our prayers are with you. We only met Papa for a brief moment, but we know how much he meant to you. Your daddy would be proud of how you took care of Papa Jim.

“ Jimmie and his favorite cousin, Bill (my husband) shared so many good times and laughter ...they loved their Dallas Cowboys and toured the Stadium when it was first built together. They loved each other also and I believe there was some connection in the fact that Bill passed from this world on February 27..they both had health problems. I think they were just tired and ready to be free of their broken bodies. I loved Jimmie and so blessed to have had him in our lives
