“ Grandpa I just wanna say thank you for raising me to be the person I am today , you weren't only my grandfather but also a father to me and a huge inspiration/influence in my life. Thank you for always believing in me and being my biggest fan and support system growing up in this life that I'm still trying to get used to... but I will use the teachings you gave me to prosper everyday . You were always my reason why I strive so hard to get where I want to be in life because I wanted to show you more of the world , I'll forever love you and hold you close and dear to my heart and soul . R.I.P -Love Adrian
