“ To Ms. Casarez and the rest of Hector's family and friends...All of my love and well wishes, my condolences. I love and miss you all. I know you are hurting and you miss him much. He was a great son, brother and friend. He will be missed by so many people! God has him now and he will be fine and pain free. But the world has lost a shining light! God bless you all!

“ I worked in Human Resources at Unitrin with Hector for nine years. We had lunch together almost every day and I heard many family stories. He was a great man with such humor and compassion, and very devoted to his family. So very sorry for your loss! The world lost a shining light.
