“ *The Lord let me have you just for a while
There was nothing better than seeing you smile
Deep in my heart I know you're at rest
And could see in your eyes that you were so stressed*

*I know you're in heaven now spreading your wings
Flying around watching everything
I'd give anything to have you back
But you use those wings that God put on your back Remember I love you and I always will You're with the Lord now and in our hearts still You were so sick and suffered for so long
I'm glad the Lord & his angels finally took you home*

*I could see in your eyes how much pain you were in
And one day, in heaven, I'll see you again
Don't forget the love you created in everyone you knew Deep in your childrens and grandchildrens hearts, our love for you is tried and true##imported-begin##Jeffrey Stegman##imported-

“ I love you Alice! You definitely took the place of my other grandma just as naturally as Jeff took the place of my dad. I will miss your sweet and selfless nature. Only when everyone else was happy was the only time you could be happy too. Even when you got sick, you helped with the house work and worried about everyone else before yourself. I'm glad I got to spend those last couple of months with you living here with us. You made me feel like I was your blood granddaughter and I am really going to miss you. I know you're in a better place and you're no longer in constant pain anymore now that you have made that long journey home.##imported-begin##Amy##imported-end##
