“ I sat next to Allan for 3 years in the Dallas Jazz Orchestra from 1995-98. Despite our nearly 40 year age gap, we had a ball each and every week or extra gig. Most of my fondest and funniest memories from DJO involve Allan cutting me up in every rest and break between tunes. Enjoy the afterlife, old friend....I know you'll be swingin!

“ We were fortunate to go to school with Allan, graduating from Lansing Eastern High School in Michigan in 1955. We like to think he got his start as a musician playing in the school bands. We were so proud of the exciting life he continued to live, playing with big name bands, etc. He stayed busy over the years, but we tried to stay in (long distance) contact. He & Anita joined some of our classmates in a Zoom meeting in 2020. We picture him playing his saxophone in Heaven. Eleanor Boettcher Bailey, representing the Class of '55

“ Allan was a brilliant and talented man. He had such incredible stories of life. A grand sense of humor with a mischievous smile that charmed you! You liked him from the minute you met him! His legacy will be in the beautiful children he had and the wonderful music he played! God Bless his family. ❤️

“ Allan was a loving, kind, fun, talented man whom I always enjoyed visiting. Once I got to know him through my friendship with Anita, he was always gracious, thoughtful and made me feel very welcome. He was always happy and loved having people around him doing all kinds of fun things. I will miss seeing his smile and his hugs. Anita, much love to you and the family.
