“ I remember being friends with Annita since we were small children at the old building Saner Avenue Church of Christ. We went to Vacation Bible School there and later were friends in our early marriages with our own children. We joined them later in our lives many times at Waxahachie Jamboree.

“ You were an amazing mother-in-law and I loved you more than words can say. So many good precious memories that I will treasure . I was not ready for you to go but God was. My tears finally have stopped for just a bit but my heart is breaking. I think of Ruth and Naomi. I want to be with you Nita but I still have much to do here with my babies. So for now take care of my Dusty and sing away with the others. I love you

I knew Anita when she was very, very young. Her father, James Medford performed the wedding ceremony for my husband, Winston Atkinson, in 1952. Cordie was a wonderful Christian wife and mother. My condolences to all the family. Heaven is made a little sweeter now!

I remember Anita and Hoyt's wedding to this day. I loved her Father, Brother Medford and oh my goodness, what a sermon he preached to them on their wedding day. It was beautiful. Anita was one of the sweetest! Brother Medford performed our wedding ceremony also at the Sunset Church of Christ. My prayers for all. Shirley (Bass) Sembritzky

Anita was about 4 years old and had a rabbit muff and hat I wish was mine. James was the minister at the Church on Centre Street In Lancaster (where city hall is now). Anita was a member of our graduating class from Lancaster in 1959. She was always a caring, kind person.
