“ Our words fall short of expressing the sorrow we are feeling. Tio Tin was a strong, considerate and caring man and will be missed by us all. He will always be in our hearts. I find solace in the poem below, I hope you do as well.

IF TEARS COULD BUILD A STAIRWAY

*If tears could build a stairway
and thoughts a memory lane
I'd walk right up to heaven and bring you home again.*

*No Farewell words were spoken
No time to say good-bye
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knows why.*

*My heart's still active in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one can ever know.*

*But now I know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.*

*Since you'll never be forgotten
I pledge to you today
A hallowed place within my heart
Is where you'll always stay.*

“ Uncle Gabby was always there when you needed help, from baseball, cars, school homework, to being stranded with a flat tire on your bike. He never judged any of us, I always liked to hear his war stories and his stories of growing up. I liked to tell him my stories too because it always got him to have a good hard laugh no matter how many times I'd repeated them over and over throughout the years. I think there is a little of his personality and life lessons in all of us. He will be missed by all.
