

Barry Clyde Pickard

January 23, 1958 - December 3, 2025

Barry Pickard, a devoted husband, loving father, and cherished grandfather, passed away on December 3, 2025, at the age of 67. Born on January 23, 1958, Barry lived a life full of laughter, adventure, and unwavering love for his family.

He was preceded in death by Greg Pickard, Oral Pickard, Clara Gerstner, Mildred Bentley, Chester Bentley, Larry Pickard, Rick Pickard, Kelly Pickard, Bud Eggers, and Dennis Eggers.

Barry is survived by his wife, Kristy Pickard; his sons, Ryan, Brett, Connor, and Daniel Pickard; his grandchildren, Shad Pickard, Emily Pickard, and Madison Martin; and his great-grandchild, Everett; his parents Bob and Carla Pickard; his siblings, Natalie Beck (Gerald), Sharla Cleaver (Alan), and Susie Pickard; and many nieces and nephews.

Barry's passions were as big as his heart. He loved drinking Corona beer, caring for animals no matter how ornery they were, riding horses, and traveling with his family in their RV. He had a zest for life that was evident in the smile he wore every day. Barry also enjoyed running racehorses, a hobby that brought him great pride and excitement.

Those who knew Barry will remember his humor and unforgettable stories, such as:

~ The largest farm expense being replacing broken feed buckets that took the brunt of his frustrations.

~ His overuse of spray foam during Daniel's house renovations.

~The time Barry got a little too close while lighting a fire in a burn barrel, prompting young Connor to ask, "Dad, why did you put your head in that fire?"

~ When Bob Pickard saw a kid and a dog walking down Main Street and said, "What deadbeat parents would let their kid walk down the middle of Main Street?"—only to discover it was Barry.

~When 14-year-old Brett was running down FM 157 leaving school at 5 a.m. to retrieve a forgotten grade sheet, and Barry met him at the garage door—both surprised to see one another.

~Just two days after hernia surgery in Alamogordo, New Mexico Barry tumbled down the white sand dunes trying to show Daniel and Kristy how sledding was done.

Barry's life was a testament to love, laughter, and living fully. He will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

A celebration of Barry's life will be at 1:00pm on Saturday, December 6, 2025 at Maypearl First United Methodist Church.

“ As a little girl, I met Barry Pickard because he went to school with my big Brother Dan and of course I knew all the family and then later on my dad would work on and off with his dad and mama and when you see people that you know all your life it's a comforting thought so now I comfort you Dear Folks the times they would Have bonfire and fundraisers, making hamburgers and working with the Murray Burgers be part of the Italy booster club they were parents together my parents and their parents Carla and Bob out at the farm and we see him in and out of town or the ball games of course my daddy did all kinds of work around there and Bob one day saw my daddy in town and he said little girl, you know your daddy is one of the hardest working daddy in this town and then Barry was right behind him and he said I sure do agree. Mr Padilla one of the hardest working daddy I've ever seen next to my own. I know your folks are very broken heart at the passing of so you will be in my thoughts and in my prayers during this time and I know the Lord will carry you through because he promises in his word he will carry the brokenhearted in his word is always true

“ It’s difficult to put these thoughts together cohesively because it’s just so damn difficult to wrap my mind around him not being here. All those Friday nights on the football field, track meets, FFA judging, pickup basketball games on Sundays with all the guys. Our Senior play, hay rides with the church, sitting in study hall playing spades and so many more memories flood through my mind. These are the things I remember of Barry. No one expects this, there’s really no way to prepare, only the sadness of wishing you could see that big grin just one more time.
His smile, his wit and handshake, all the things that made Barry Pickard someone I was proud to call friend.
