Diane Parish Tolleson, born on March 10, 1943, in Sherman, Texas, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by a host of family on November 6, 2025, in Sunnyvale, Texas. She was 82 years old.

After graduating from Celina High School, Diane pursued her education at Texas Women's University, laying the foundation for a life marked by devotion—to her faith, her family, and her community. A steadfast follower of Christ throughout her life, her unwavering belief guided each step of her journey. She cherished her church family deeply and found joy and strength in the fellowship of her weekly ladies bible study groups. Her grandchildren and great grandchildren were the joy of her life, as she was to them.

Diane's legacy lives on through the family she loved dearly. She is survived by her sons, William Michael Tolleson (Jenny) and Thaddeus Rex Tolleson; her daughter, Kristi Lynette Breakell (Collin Fitzgerald).
