

Brittney Adair Royder

August 18, 1956 - December 29, 2013

OUR BUTTERFLY GIRL, WE ARE GOING TO MISS YOUR PRECIOUS SMILE!

Brittney Adair Royder was born August 18, 1956 in Austin, Texas to James Otis "Jack" and Patricia Marlene (Lay) Royder. She passed from this life on December 29, 2013. Brittney was preceded in death by husband George Birch. She is survived by parents Jack & Pat Royder; brothers Clay Royder & wife Mona, Brad Royder; sister Randi Royder; nieces and nephews Alexandra & Katerina Royder, David, Mark & Megan Matthews.

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate memorials to Lancaster Outreach or Wounded Warriors.

“ I am in total shock..I had found Georges obituary online and then all of a sudden I see this. I was trying to get back in touch with my buddy and old next door neighbor Brittney.. We lived next door to each other in Big Lake, Mn... She was a sweet and caring person. I loved their cute little dogs... I havent seen them for years but she always had a place in my heart...My thoughts and prayers go out to her family. She will always be remembered as a good friend and a whacky and crazy lady.... Loved her!!!!

“ I had a chance to work with Brittney at the City of Lancaster she would clean and take care of the shelter animals. She was a very nice person to me. I was surprised by her sudden death. I had previously met her father and her brother recently and I know that they miss her dearly.

Brittie, I miss you so much. I have lost my sister and my Longhorn buddy. How can I go to another game without you. I look for you often or expect for you to walk in the door at any time. Thank God we had you back in Texas for three years before this happened. You are loved much more than you ever dreamed of. You are now with George and Jennifer. I am sure you happier than ever.. I love big sis and miss you so much.
