

Cari Ann Lang

March 3, 1973 - March 29, 2015

Cari Ann Lang was called home to be with her Heavenly Father on March 29, 2015. Cari was born in Odessa, Texas on March 3, 1973. She was an example to all with her pure kindness, giving heart, and loving disposition. As a Sunday school teacher for over 8 years, Cari was passionate about sharing God's gift. Cari's smile lit up a room and she was the first to provide a cherished hug. Her laugh was infectious and she had a keen sense of humor. She treasured her family and friends and loved spending time with them. Elvis didn't have a bigger fan. Cari was a blessing to everyone she met. She was a loving daughter, sister, aunt, cousin and friend.

Cari was preceded in death by her mother, Bobbie Jean Smith Lang; brother, Stephen Paul Lang; and her grandparents: Joe & Estelle Lang and Sid & Georgia Smith.

The loss of Cari's mom was difficult for her. The bond between a mother and daughter is special and God blessed Cari with two of them. Cari shared some special relationships throughout her life. Though Cari is rejoined with her maternal mother, she was blessed sharing 10 years with Dana after her mother passed away. Dana, better known as Mom, helped to provide the love and guidance Cari needed as she matured in this new phase of her life. Cari's bond with her brother was quite special and extremely exclusive which included a lot of older brother aggravation and lots of love. Cari's one constant in her life was her special relationship with her father. Cari cherished this relationship.

Cari is survived by her parents: Jim and Dana Lang; her brothers: David Norris Lang & his wife Holly, Jon Brinlee & his wife Amanda, Matt Brinlee & his wife Christie, and Jeff Brinlee ;Grandparents: Alvis & JoAnna Edmonson, Aunts and Uncles, 12 nieces & nephews, cousins.

“Ginger and I are so sorry for your loss. There are no words that we can say that will replace the hole in your heart. However, we can say, and commit, to keeping you guys in our prayers and supporting you through this time of grief. I can't tell you the amount of admiration I have for you as I've watched you love and care for Cari. You have been tremendous examples for Ginger and I as we deal with our own challenges in parenting a child. Your lives are a living testimony of Godly parents and we are so glad that we have had a chance to be witness to that.

I am sad for you because of your loss, but happy for you that you have the assurance that you will be reunited with Cari someday. I believe that reunion will be a glorious day in Heaven. We love you both!

“ Cari was fun to be around. Cari would always whisper to me and ask me to come to another room with her. She wanted to tell me her secrets about a boy that she liked. She always had someone young man that she was thinking about. It was so cute!

Cari was a very special lady! This is a very difficult time. May God hold you, Jim, Dana and family in his arms for comfort and peace during this time. Only God can bring healing and peace to your hearts after such a great loss.
