“ Back when we moved to Washington DC in 1988 from Dallas he came out on a trip to visit us. Everyday me and my sister would talk about our family we left behind and how much we missed everyone. Somehow he knew we needed him there. Even for that brief few days it brightened up being so far from home. After that I wasn't so homesick and didn't fear the world so much. I will always carry him with me.

“ My uncle Jaime was the nicest man you could ever meet. He made friends everywhere he went. He was always joking and telling stories about the trouble we caused when we were kids. He was always your biggest fan and made you feel like you were his favorite. I think we all were. He is loved by all and will be greatly missed. I love you tio!
