“ I met Cary 15 years ago and he was always a good and dependable friend to me. We had a lot in common and he loved to show me all his favorite places in Dallas. I'd gone 6 years without talking to him when he texted out of the blue back in March. He talked about being in love with life and it sounded like he was finally feeling "centered." My heart breaks for his family. We spoke about his grandparents the last time we talked. He loved them with all his heart. Cary was an amazing, complicated man and I'm going to miss him.

“ Cary and I shared a lot of good times over the years. We enjoyed music together at shows and in living rooms. I will miss him dearly. I still have the last cardboard coaster he signed for me in 2012 before I moved to GA. We spoke about it on June 17th while on my way to the hospital for my cancer treatment. Love you buddy. Will miss you dearly.

“ Cary was such a creative soul. A few months ago I found a CD he had made Tony and I of him playing his guitar. Beautiful. I remember teaching him at VCA his senior year. I loved seeing him and the rest of the high school worship team lift up their praises to God at Wednesday's chapel. I will miss him. We will be out of town for the viewing, but please know you all are in our prayers.
