

Catherine Olivia Hill

June 4, 1932 - October 12, 2014

Catherine Louise Hill, nee Parnell, was born June 4, 1932, in Lott, Texas. She entered Heaven's gates on October 12, 2014.

Catherine was affectionately known as "Cat" to family, friends and coworkers. Catherine was most recently a member of Sunnyvale First Baptist Church, and over the years she was active in her neighborhood churches and served her Lord in many different ways. Her unwavering faith grew daily as she battled her chronic illnesses.

Catherine was faithfully committed to her husband of 65 years Jessie Loyd Hill who went to be with their Lord on October 13th last year. They loved making a home together where Catherine was the consummate homemaker and housekeeper. Catherine also worked for more than 30 years at Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Catherine is survived by her son Danny and wife Candy Hill of Tyler, Texas, and their sons Dan and Tye Hill and their families of Reston, Virginia. Catherine is also survived by son Bruce and wife Karen Hill, of Sunnyvale, Texas and their son Charlie Hill of Terrell, Texas.

Catherine was born to the late Lydia and R. Ben Parnell, and she was the last of their seven children to pass. Catherine spent most of her early years in Lott and DeSoto, Texas. She attended Lancaster High School. Jessie and Catherine raised their family in the Pleasant Grove suburb of Dallas, and most recently lived in Mesquite, Texas.

Family and friends celebrated Catherine's life on Monday morning. She was interred next to her husband in Rawlins Cemetery in Lancaster.

Tribute Wall

AP

“ April sent a virtual gift in memory of Catherine Olivia Hill

April - October 19, 2014 at 08:49 PM

DP

“ Darrell Pryor lit a candle in memory of Catherine Olivia Hill

darrell pryor - October 17, 2014 at 10:56 AM