

Charlene Ross Judd

April 10, 1941 - June 1, 2021

Charlene Ross Judd was born April 10th, 1941, in Amarillo, TX and passed from this life on June 1, 2021, in Fort Worth, Texas.

She was always very smart and very headstrong. At age 17 she married the love of her life, James Judd. They met at the Grace Baptist Church in Amarillo, TX. Charlene and Jim were stationed in England for several years and fell in love traveling all over the world. They and their family were active members at Grace Baptist for many years.

In later years they moved back to Jim's hometown of Lancaster, TX and lived in that area setting in Red Oak, TX. As they slowed down in the last few years, they had a caregiver named Keatrina, that they came to love with all their hearts. Because of this help from Keatrina, they were able to continue living at their home in Red Oak almost till the end.

Thanks to those at The Harrison at Heritage in Fort Worth for the loving care until the end of her life here on earth. Also, the family thanks Cindy Ross, Charlene's younger sister for all the unselfish help that she was to Charlene and to Jim. Due to her 36 years nursing experience and love for Charlene and her family she was able to get on the visitors list and usually visited three days a week. She would prepare special requested food and hand feed Charlene. Cindy also spent many hours doing FaceTime calls to Charlene and Jim's family and friends. This proved to be the last time that most of them saw each other and spoke to each other on earth.

Charlene and Jim's social life was based around church and family. Charlene and Jim had reservations in heaven bought and paid for by the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I know for a fact that they wanted each member of their families and each one of their friends to accept the Savior's free gift of salvation. If you are not sure please contact Dr. Kenneth Gore, the pastor preaching Charlene's funeral and he can show you the plan of salvation, straight from the Bible. Jesus said that it is so simple that even a child can understand.

Charlene was preceded in death by her daughter Jami Troutt and by her husband James Judd.

Charlene and Jim had three children: her daughter, Jami Troutt and husband Randy Troutt, her son Michael Judd and wife Kari Judd, her daughter Staci Mehl and husband Yaron Mehl.

Her grandchildren are Clinton Troutt, Whitney Troutt, Cody Troutt, Emily Hart, Kelly Hart, Sophia Mehl.

Charlene's siblings are Barbara Greenroyd, Bob Ross, Cindy Ross Bryant, and Charles Ross.

And many, many loving nieces and nephews, family members and friends

“ Jim and Charlene were wonderful people. I remember spending the night at their home, Jim getting us all up early to have breakfast, then off to church. Had many long talks with them both on our rides home from FB practice when we were in Jr. High. Staci, I would love to contact you again if you read this I know it is several years late.

“ Posted for Marvin and Pat Matthews

I met Charlene in grade school and we became friends in Junior high. We have laughed together, cried together and prayed together.

I remember the day she accepted Christ as her savior and she never looked back. Her first concern was for her Dad to get saved and what a joy it was when he did.

We have remained friends over the many years even though we were usually thousands of miles apart and not able to communicate. The fun thing was, when we did get to see each other it was like we had never been apart.

She and Jim were a joy to be around and their love for the Lord grew more precious as the years passed by.

She is much loved and will be greatly missed but I rejoice that I will see her and Jim in heaven with our precious Lord and Savior.

“ I can't think of Charlene without smiling. I considered her a sweet friend and one of the "moms" of our department at the Annuity Board in the late nineties and early 2000s. I loved her wit and kindness. I know she will be missed by her friends and family, but I also know that she is in the presence of her Lord now and is loving it!

Thank you, Charlene, for leaving your mark on my life.

“ Charlene and Jim were very special family members. Our daughters and family loved them very much. We enjoyed many family times, church events, and visits with them through the years....always good times! Their former pastor, Jack Ables, was very special for Jim and Charlene through many years. Dr. Ken Gore, who will be conducting the service, and his wife related to Jim and Charlene from the days Charlene worked at the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, now Guidestone. Their lives intersected with many persons in numerous places through the years bringing Christian joy and blessings. She will be buried in the National Cemetery in Dallas with Jim. We will miss them but are thankful for their deep commitment to Christ and their being with Him now in their heavenly home.
