“ It was an honor to be CP's friend. I was amazed by his selfless commitment to the well being of others. He always tried to get me to do the right thing, never scolding, just offering up "dad-like" encouragement to get me pointed in the right direction. He will truly be missed. “ I didn't know CP very well, I remember him as always having a smile on his face. We worked together off and on at the plant in Greenville. I remember him being curious about me being a Messianic Jew and we did have some interesting discussions together. May HaShem bless the ones he left behind, and comfort them through this time of separation. He was a good man and will be sorely missed!##imported-begin##Nolan Lasovich##imported-end##

“ Although I just knew CP for a relatively short time, I was great blessed by his character and humility. He lived a great, active, colorful and full life, yet I never heard him toot his own horn. What I noticed through the scripture studies was his desire to learn; he was like a sponge, soaking up the Word. I particular loved his humble and sincere approach to communion, and how he bowed his head so that I could reach to bless him.##imported-begin##Hector Pena##imported-end##
