“ Connie was a very good friend of mine, didn't know of her passing. Always wondered where she was. We had fun times together, always up to something. But it was fun. We laughed a lot. Wish I could have been there for you. Love you girl. RIP Debbie Honeycutt ❤️😭💋

“ I have a lot of precious memories of Connie, particularly when we were younger. Connie was full of laughter; her wit was sarcastic and quick. Connie's love was all encompassing and her temper could be fierce. Connie deserved so much better than what she received here on this earth. May Connie find peace in her eternal life with our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

“ Connie, was a long time friend in school / church.. we ran around as young teens during school years. And always kept in touch. I am so sorry that she had struggle with her health. But now she has a better life with the Heavenly Angels. May she rest in Peace.. She is in Heaven with my Lil Sis Liz (Elizabeth Hampton Smith). Connie ,you will be dearly missed, but I will remember all the Good times we spent .
