I can not put in words the hurt and sadness I have at the loss of Ash. Ash was a true blessing when he came into our lives. Ash and Josh were like brothers and Ash's spirit lives on in my life and my sons. Ash was precious and he knew how much we loved him. Nobody will forget you!

“ i went to high school with Ash and he was one of the few people who was nice to me and didn't treat me as a freak or outsider. Ash was one of the nicest people i have ever known. I truly wish I had been able to touch base with him on a more regular basis as a friend and fellow artist. He inspired me so much in Art club and as a human being for being so strong even with the cards stacked against him health-wise. I got to spend a great night at Type O Negative's last concert in Dallas with Ash,my friend Adam and his bestie Josh and i will never forget the feeling of acceptance and joy in that ballroom.He was too amazing to be taken so soon from this world and i will miss him always. Goodbye my friend.

“ I taught Ashley in first grade, and will always remember a sweet boy who had a caring heart for everyone. I still have in my teacher memory book a note he wrote to me along with a beautiful picture he drew. He will be dearly missed!

Dear Kathy, Thank you so much for the kind words. Ash and I thought you were the greatest. Ash has been sculpting for a while now and you should see some of the things he has created. Love you Beverly “ Very sorry to hear this. A nice guy who was very talented in art. Nancy in Ohio.

“ One of the kindest souls to walk this earth. For his family and friends, the world is a much darker place.

I was introduced to Ash almost 18 years ago by my husband. It was an instant adoption to the family he built out of his friends. When the group went out, you never had to fear being left out, as Ash made sure to talk with everyone...including the kids. We are lost without your sense of humor and amazing art.

Tiffany Treadway-Currey - November 13, 2017 at 11:00 PM

“ I met Ash when I first came to Dallas and was immediately impressed by his honesty and character. I was blown away by his art in what ever venue he chose.He's truly a wonderful spirit and will continue that in the everlasting cosmos. To family and friends sorry for your loss. The world will be less beautiful without him.

“ A great man, and an even greater friend. Candles can be lit, but they pale in comparison to the darkness left by your passing.
