“ Doran was the greatest friend and neighbor. He was always willing to help and was a comfort to have close by especially when we were out of town. We will miss hearing the click and squeak of his back gate opening early each morning or in the evenings and the horn blowing on the golf cart when he went down to feed his animals. May he rest in peace. Phil & Jeanan Gizzi

“Doran was my dear friend, Betty's husband. I have so much respect for how he loved and cared for her. Doran became very close to my heart. My sincere condolences to his entire, wonderful family....especially Phillip and Brenda who made those last weeks as comfortable as they could for him so unselfishly. I will miss Doran as I do, Betty.
