“ I am so sorry to hear of Mrs. Carpenter's passing. I didn't know her personally but I have been in contact with her daughter, Charlotte, concerning the Collinsworth Family genealogy. I am a KY "cousin". I would like very much to meet her family. Maybe someday we can. Our prayers and thoughts are with all of you.##imported-begin##Garnett Collinsworth Amyx##imported-end##

“ My sister Doris was my cheerleader all my life. Many words of encouragement when life's journey took me through the valleys. One I will never forget was written on the back of a Christmas card with a green crayola. Sent in June (so like her) Basicly saying to keep my chin up and that she loved me. She was so much fun to be with and could always make me smile . As a teen when you think your world is ending. She would say that God loved me and everything was going to be alright. In the recent years many phone calls to brighten my days . My wish to every one is that they have or can be someone like Doris in their life time. I was blessed to have her in mine and will miss her dearly.##imported-begin##Ann Fredde##imported-end##

You know, David fasted, prayed and remained alone before he lost his child to heaven in the hopes that the child would be with him on earth; but after the passing of the child, David arose, washed his face and ate. The battle is over, she is all smiles and maybe dancing and the victory is the Lord's. My heart is with you. I love you.

“ Near her passing, Mother requested that this poem be read for her loved ones. It is a poem given to her by her sister, DeLois, that she treasured.

To Those Who I Love And Those Who Love Me

*When I am gone, release me let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You must not tie yourself to me with tears.
Be thankful for our beautiful years.*

*I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now, it's time I travel alone.*

*So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.*

*I won't be far away for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
All my love around you, soft and clear.*

*And then, when you must come this way alone,
I will greet you with a smile and say "Welcome Home".##imported-

“ Doris (Collinsworth) Carpenter is survived by two loving sisters - her oldest sister, Dorothy Marie (Collinsworth) Hamilin of Dallas and her youngest sister, Dora Ann (Collinsworth) Fredde of Dallas.

Doris was very blessed to have seven siblings in order of birth - Dorothy Marie (Collinsworth) Hamlin (1916 -) , R K Sephus (1918 - 1919), Della Mae (Collinsworth) Streigl (1919 - 1974), Dovie Lee (Collinsworth) Decker (1921 - 1978), Delois (Collinsworth) McCurley (1925 - 1993), Loyal William "Bill" Collinsworth, Jr. (1928 - 1992), and Dora Ann (Collinsworth) Fredde (1938 -).

Doris was surrounded by the love of her family, parents and siblings in life, and I believe, she is once again circled by the love of those who have "gone home" before her. Our prayers are with Dorothy and Ann, her living sisters, during this difficult time, who know in their hearts they also be surrounded by that love again.##imported-begin##Charlotte Johnson (daughter)##imported-end##
