“ Donna and her Mother, Alice, were our next door neighbors on Waynelee Drive for many years. After Alice died, Donna and I often talked and I would put out her trash and recyclable bins for her often. She often would go to Whataburger and bring food to my Mother (Arla Tyson) when I was away. And we often almost had head on's when she was entering and I was exiting the alley (our homes had rear entry garages). Her white Cadillac would have won! We were members of FBC Lancaster and sang in the Senior Seranaders together. A great neighbor and a fine lady! Rest well, Donna! Morris S. Tyson, Sr. Alexandria, VA and Tombstone, AZ.

My beautiful Aunt Donna was someone I admired. I looked forward to her visits and loved listening to her lovely Southern accent. I wish we could have visited in her later years. She will remain a vivid memory for me. Rest in peace, sweet lady 💜
