“ I remember all of kids hanging out in Wilmer, back then we didn't have to worry about all the bad stuff happening. The Wickliffe's were special friends that always had a smile on their face. You will be truly missed, and may you have peace and love now. RIP Dorothy Louise till all of us meet again.

I grew up across the street from the Wickliffe's. All of us kids would be at Richard's store buying candy and cold drinks. LOL> You could hear her calling her boys- Billy Joe, Stephen, and Gary. They would be so mad at there mom. All of our moms and dads knew she could get us all back home.. Hint the store was 3 blocks away.
