“ I have many great memories of Aunt Edna, Uncle Travis and all my cousins. They let me live with them for awhile during my freshman year of high school and Aunt Edna always seemed to have a smile on her face even though she already had a house full of kids. Julie, Charles, Gail and Becky, your Mom is no longer in pain and in a better place. Love you all, Clay

“ We went out west after some family members, that had surgery, and we stopped by and Edna Faye's. She had food, beds, and everything to help strangers (distant relatives that she had never met) for us at her home. She opened her home to 6 people, Myrtle And Rudolf Dobbs, Barbra and Jimmy Freeman, and me and Cleve. She never hesitated to help people in need, with a Godly love.

“ Truly a wonderful aunt! I remember visiting her home in Texas, and looking at all her makeup when I was little! I thought she had every kind of makeup there was, and I wanted to try it all! She would always spoil me, and let me try some.(even though it was just powder)I thought I was a princess! She will be greatly missed!
