Elizabeth May Ruggles (Dolly) of Lewisville, Texas was born on June 24, 1939 in Concord, New Hampshire. She passed from this life on July 13, 2014.

Dolly was born to Erwin and Mary Ann (Carroll) Ames. She attended Concord, New Hampshire High School. In 1955 she married Normand Roger Vezina.

Dolly worked in the restaurant and medical business for many years. In 1963 she married Jonathan Ruggles.

Dolly was preceded in death by parents; son Richard Vezina; brothers Erwin, Rolland and John Ames and sister Beverly Deanault.

She is survived by three sons; Normand and wife Elizabeth Vezina, David and wife Ruth Vezina, and Tommy Vezina. She is also survived by three daughters; Donna Bauldwin, Sharon and husband Freddie Gilmore and Margie and husband Donny Harner. She loved her grandchildren Melissa Vezina, Doug Bauldwin, Mary and Roger Vezina, Megan and Sara Harner and Samantha Gilmore and great-grandchildren Sawyer and Bentley.

From 1995 to her retirement in 2005 she worked with her son, Normand in his business, Backyard BBQ & Catering, Inc. There she helped him grow the business by organizing catering, booking events, collecting and posting receipts. During part of that time another son, Tommy was working with them in the catering business. It was a dream come true for Dolly to be working side-by-side two of her sons.

Dolly's favorite times were when all the family came together for special events. Thanksgiving was generally the biggest event for the family. She also loved animals and over the years had many furry and feathery friends. Rest in Peace Mom. We love you dearly.

“ I'll never forget the first time that I was invited to a family holiday dinner with Dolly and Norm's Family. I struggled with what to make to bring because I knew that Norm was a good cook and Dolly was a good cook also. I finally decided to make a standby family tradition from my Granny, Cranberry Salad. Being the gentleman that he was, Norm wanted to carry it into Dolly's house for me. As he was walking across the frozen lawn, he tripped and the Pyrex dish of Cranberry Salad went flying and broke in pieces. Norm's Family never got to try my salad that night, but I still got to join the fun even without my offering. That was the beginning of many joyful family gatherings for me.
