“ Gary, Ronnie, Randy & Bruce: Guys, I'm so very thankful God allowed our families to meet when we were young. Your Mother taught so many by the life she lived in word, deed and song. She exemplified the true phrase "a woman of God". Some of my best memories as a child were when we were all together at GBF, especially as she played and sang for the Lord. Thanks to all of you guys and your parents, especially your Mom, for sharing those good times with us. I will always cherish a beautiful memory of your sweet Mother. My prayer is a Hebrew blessing over each of you...."May the Lord bless and keep you; may He make His face shine down on you; may He turn His countenance your direction and give you peace." With sympathy to each of you, your wives & children & grandchildren! Always Friends! Love, Janell J. Moore & Family

“ Gary, Ronnie, Randy, Bruce and families. My heart hurts for you in the loss of your sweet Mom and Grandmother. Emma was a very special person and a precious friend. I was very fortunate to have had her in my life during my teenage years. She was a great influence in my life. I will always remember your Mom in my heart. Love you guys. Marlene J Cargile
