“ I knew Eric from Tech School through the Air Force. I just learned of his passing and am so sorry. He was a wonderful human being and had a way of lighting up the room and making people laugh. He is in a better place now smiling down from heaven. My thoughts and prayers go out to all his family and friends, I am so sorry.

“ I worked with Eric when I got to my first duty assignment in Nebraska. After switching shifts a few months in, he was the first person I remember being friendly to the whole group of us who had just moved there. He was always such a fun person to be around. Never knew what was going to come out of his mouth next. Funny guy and great co-worker. Thanks for everything bud, you'll be missed.

“ As the wife of 12 years to Eric's father, David, my grief is his grief. From the first time i met Eric it was so apparent that he was a man of integrity, kind hearted, good humoured and loved his Dad very much. Seeing Eric and Lucas together was a sight to behold. My sincere sympathy goes out to everyone who loved and appreciated this kind and beautiful man.

“ A death of a young one causes such heartache! Even though the ache will mellow with time, it will always be there. I have no words...nothing I can say will take the hurt and heartache away. But I do know that Eric walks with the Lord. Eric is HOME and he waits for each of us who remain here on earth. You and I will see Eric again ~ of that I am sure. I pray for healing. I pray for Eric's wife and son, Steve and Laura, Jackson and wife, and Mel and husband. My heart is heavy.

“ My dearest nephew, you will be greatly missed. You are now among the angels watching over all of us. As you now watch over all of us, know you were a wonderful father to Lucas who loves you dearly, as well as a good husband to Katie. Our prayers are with your family Eric during this time. You will always be in our hearts and remembered. Thanks for the memories (good, challenging, etc.) we have shared. Those times shaped our relationship. One day we will be singing praises with you to our Precious Savior. Love you Eric.
