“ I have few memories of my great aunt Ester, but those few include the smile seen in the photo on the memorial page. As I never lived in the area (my parents - Calvin and Laurel moved to Desoto the summer I finished high school), I would only see this part of the family on special gathers.##imported-begin##wayne bucher##imported-end##

“ One of my favorite stories on Aunt Esther ... Esther, the farm girl, called her sister Jewel, the city girl and my grandmother, to ask how to cook a turkey. Jewel responded that she wasn't really sure, but that the instructions would be right there on the package. Having a dry wit, Esther thanked her, hung up, and called back 15 minutes later. "I pulled every feather off that bird and still don't find any instructions!"##imported-begin##Dave and Helen Ann Bucher##imported-end##

“ I have very fond memories of Aunt Esther. My sisters and I would sometimes stay with her on trips to Dallas. She was a perfect example of hard work and love of family.

My thoughts and prayers are with her children and family at this time.

“ Dear Family,
You will never know how much Aunt Esther meant to me. She was a tornado! Always on the go. The wonderful clothes she made! I remember the burnt orange french sleeved dress she made me! I have a picture made in it. I loved coming to Red Oak and discovering the creek. I know she will be so happy to be with Uncle Charles in heaven. And having fun with all of brothers and sisters. I know mom is going to be happy! Will see you all soon!##imported-begin##Celia Spitz##imported-end##
