“ Floye had such a beautiful smile, and although she will be greatly missed, may the fond memories you have of her bring you much comfort and strength, as well as the hope of seeing her again as promised at Acts 24:15.

“ I will always remember Floyce's beautiful smile. I know her life was hard, yet I never heard her complain. She always had a smile for me and would listen to me talk, which as you all know, is important to me. I know you'll miss her.
