“ Javier, I hope you are there being the great heart you were here. I know you would do anything I asked while you were here. I want you to watch over everybody there. Your family there grows constantly. I wish you all would visit me in a dream. I would love to be able to see you all and visit. We love and miss you all.
Ps: I am sure you know but my mom and Frank are running around in heaven now too. Hopefully they will help you keep everyone in line.

“ My deepest sympathy for the Chavez family. Peier was part of our family too and I will miss his special knock at my front door. He was like a brother to my son Chris. May God give his family comfort and strength and may he Rest In Peace. From the Campos families.
