“ Papa Frank you are one of the best and toughest SOB's I've ever had the pleasure of getting to know.... You could tell some of the funniest jokes or just a wise crack to make someone laugh until they cried.... Hope you and my dad Greg Hill Sr are drinking a cold one with a cigar and saving a seat for the rest of us for our time.... Until then continue to look out for us from there as yall did for us down here.... Much love and respect!!!

“ Uncle Frank was a good man and I will miss him. When I was young we would go down some backroad or gravel pit and shoot guns. He would stick bullets in his ears instead of earplugs. lol
Then he would light a cigar, twirl a piece of his hair and poke fun at me if I missed. As I got older I helped him on a couple fence jobs-he was a pretty quiet man most of the time but would cut up with you and have fun also. He will be missed

“ Frank was a man's man. A throwback to a time when a firm handshake meant something. I didn't know him well but it was very clear that he loved his family very much. I offer my condolences and pray for the family during this difficult time.
