“ Happy Heavenly Birthday Frank! We miss ya'll very much. Pass by your house often. Would sure like to go inside but I am sure you know how that is going 🙄. Hopefully all that will be over soon.

Until we meet again, I hope you will keep loving all my people. Tell them how much we miss you all.

I love you and this is first year in so many that I am not trying to figure out what to get you.

Hope you are still singing to mom.

Love Alisa

“ We miss you Frank.
Hope you are resting peacefully.
I hate that you and mom are gone but I am so glad that you are together.
I don't think I would have been able to bare seeing or hearing your pain, if you had to remain here without her.
Thank you for everything you did while you were here and in our lives.
You and mom did very well, you always enjoyed company, feeding people and the more was always the merrier.
The last 3 months you, I, Russell and Brenda really got to know each other more.
If there ever was a prior doubt of your love to mom, you filled that doubt.
Thank you for caring, trying to keep her going as long as you could.
Thank you for having the fore thought to protect you both , in the event that one of you passed before the other.
Man, you and I should have definitely been shredding all that unneeded paperwork instead of sitting on couch every night, just talking about it!
Keep taking care of mom Frank and always let her know where you are and where you are going. If not, God and all the angels are going to be hearing her ask, where is Frank???

She loved you Frank.
I sure hope yall are loving on Jesse and Junior for me. Hope you told them how much our hearts were broken when they left us.
Tell them I love them so much!
Until we meet again, love Alisa

“ Frank you left us unexpectedly... little did we know the phone conversation that we had the night before would be our last. I will always cherish that phone call and never forget you telling Brenda you loved her and for us to be sure to come see momma. It seems that all of us got a lot closer to each other over the last year or so. I also will never forget how fired up you would get in a split second!!! But most of the time you would calm down in the same breath and laugh about it and say you know I get fired up easy. I will never forget that laugh and can still hear it in my head. We had a little on going joke about a group text that we would laugh about when we would see each other.. which was often the last few months. Thank you Frank for loving momma and taking care of her. I won't forget the phone calls telling us "I got her to eat 3 yogurts today" and we all knew it was maybe 3 bites. You always said if we could just get her to eat. Man you loved her and it showed. I'm happy you two are up there showing off your wings together. I'm also sure your up there telling her she is the most beautiful angel of them all. I can see you on the look out for the angels with a little stain or dirt on their wing so you make them some kind of deal on some cleaner. We all miss you Frank. I know your children and their families hearts are filled with pain. Just know Alisa, Brenda & my hearts are also filled with that same pain and we all love you. Thank you again Frank for the memories and the love and laughter you showed everyone.... until we meet again. Rest in peace.

“ I wanted to post this little clip of Frank singing to mom. He always sang and I never knew when he was going to but he would bend over her and just start singing, I'll do anything for you dear, anything for you. .

I wish I could have gotten it all.

Frank and mom enjoyed their life together very much.

Before mom got sick, they would just go exploring. Get in the car and just drive. They would go to thrift shops looking for a treasure.

Frank would always buy me paintings to decorate my home .

He and mom lived Christmas.

We still have the Christmas tree up now because he wouldn't take it down because of mom.

I use to always tell everyone they were like "Everybody loves Raymonds" parents.

They were something together for sure and they shared a great love.

“ Frank, me and Russell have been here with Mom. She is trying to go to heaven. Frank, I am so sorry that I did not realize how sick you were. I would have encouraged you to go to hospital. I am glad you called and let me know how bad you felt so that mom was sure to have someone with her.

Needless to say, we cannot believe you are gone!
I thank you for caring for mom so much and just always seeing that she had what she needed even though, you were sick too.
I don't think I will ever see anyone get so mad, so quickly as you could an make me so mad.
We always managed to laugh about it afterwards and I guess that is what caused the relationship to grow.
We will miss you Frank. I hope you were greeted by Jesse and Junior and hopefully they didn't mess with you too much. They should know the ropes by now and I am sure they are showing you the ways. Tell Grandmother, Granddaddy, Peggy, Carl, Jack, Sharon, Stephen Craig, all those there waiting that she is on her way. We miss y'all, we are sure gonna miss her too.
I bet heaven is awesome! Please ask Jesus to be merciful and call her name soon.

I love you all. Alisa
