“ I send my thoughts and prayers to the Oliver's and Fred's family. We have lost a kind, gentle and one of kind friend in Fred. I appreciated seeing God live through him and watching God work through others to bless him.

“ I remember as a young man working with Amos and Fred mowing yards. Fred always had great stories and a smile on his face. He will be missed.

“ My heart is broken into One Hundred Gazillion pieces. FRED! A man who would steal Your Heart! The Life and Heartbeat of Beltline and Main Church of Christ in Lancaster. A man who daily sought to make others feel better about themselves! An amazing man who walked daily with God and any one around him walked with God too!
Oh my, what a blessing he was in all of our lives!
