“ Gary and Frank and myself servered as door greeters at the Cowboy church of Ellis county. We had planned to set the welcome wagon up with Ranger doug western songs and we would be the control without anyone knowing!!! We laughed so hard that we gave it away before actually doing our deed. “ Karen and Family, We are so sad to hear of Gary's passing. What a wonderful friend he was always offering hope and joy to each he met. I remember when he worked for me years ago along with two other firefighters from the Lancaster house. I have often felt in the past there was never again a group of individuals around me that I respected and trusted so much. I have a picture of the four of us standing in my garage. It hangs on a wall in my bunkhouse and reminds me each day what good there is in the world if we just slow down and look. Gary is in a good place now I know and we look forward to seeing him again someday. I know he will be waiting for all of us with that grin he always had on his face. We thank the lord for giving us the joy in knowing him. May he rest in peace. Phil & Jeanan Gizzi

“ Gary was my neighbor only two houses down. I can only imagine what a tremendous loss that you all must feel. Right after he and Karen moved into their home, both came to meet me, and he worked hours on my yard out of kindness. Somehow he just knew I was in a time of need. I have since seen him mow many neighbors' yards, step in and care for their place when they had surgery, or there was a sickness or loss in their family, or just to be doing something for them. I never returned the kind deed, but would always say to myself, "Someday I've got to do something for that guy, he's about the best neighbor I've ever seen." Well, someday never came, and today, after reading about him, I realize it was a great loss to me, and I feel painfully convicted, yet inspired by learning about who he was. He was one who never expected anything in return. No doubt he would want even his death to be a testimony and lesson to others: Today Gary is saying to me: Don't wait until it's too late to show you care. Don't wait until there's no time left. Don't get caught up with things that don't really matter and miss the opportunity to be there. Listen for God's voice prompting you to step up and don't wait, not one minute as that opportunity can and will be stolen from you. And if you haven't ever heard or recognized God's voice, or you've forgotten what it 's like to hear from God, start listening for it, because it's there. Answer it and say, "Yes, Lord." To Karen and all the family, I know no words can ease that sense of loss you feel and will feel for the rest of your lives. I'm so sorry for that. Gary said, "Yes, Lord." one last time on this earth, and beyond your sadness, there is joy in knowing that.
