“ I can't think of one negative thing my Mother ever did. She was loving, sharing, caring and would always make everyone feel so special! She always put everyone ahead of herself, even until the last few days of her life. She could not have loved each and every member of our family anymore than she did. I know she is beginning a new life and she'll be looking down on us with the love we always shared with her! Mama, thanks for the best love and friendship we shared for 68 of my years with you. Rest in Peace and we will all be together again one day. Loving you always, Patsy

“ Mimi was the most selfless person I have ever known. When I was a kid my favorite place to be was Mimi's house. I spent every weekend with her and Sandy. We would sit up and watch the Porter Wagner Show and the Dolly Parton Show. Aunt Judy would make popcorn and put it in a silver bowl. (I still have that bowl) The night would progress on to a bowl of peppermint ice cream. I think I ate almost every meal at her table growing up where the whole family gathered. Daddyhone would make biscuits and gravy every morning. I went to her house everyday after school. She would always have pickles in the fridge. I remember getting mad at Daddyhone because he would drink the juice off the pickles. Me and my cousins played many games of kick ball and basketball in her driveway and made many forts in her backyard. Does anyone remember playing tornado? LOL!! Occasionally, we would even sneak into Daddyhone's shop and play seesaw. Christmas Eve at Mimi's was the best. She would make a ton of candy and fudge. As I grew older, Mimi would be the first person I'd call with baby questions, sick kid questions, how to questions. We had endless phone conversations and she would tell me all about her childhood. Riding in a horse in cart, picking cotton, and playing baseball. I loved when she would tell me about her and Daddyhone courting. Needless to say she has been there for me through thick and thin. She never judges anyone. She has a live and let live attitude. I'm sure every grandchild feels like they were the favorite because she just made everyone feel special and so loved. RIP my sweet sweet Mimi! I'll see you in Heaven.....Susie
