“ I am thinking of you on your birthday. I wish we could celebrate your special day together, but I will have to rely on all the memories of your other birthday celebrations that we shared together.

“ Happy birthday mom. We love you and miss you. I think of you often. In fact you and dad come to mind every day. When I am in the garden I think of your love of plants. When I see the Texas Rangers baseball game, I think of how much you enjoyed watching them. I remember the time that I took you and dad to the game. You and dad will always have a special place in my heart.

“ Ann was my husbands sister. She meant so much to me. She was the most wonderful person. She will be missed. She was just like Billy & Georgia always on the bright side. She said that she would get to see them. I love you all.
