“ You left me too soon on that October day, I didn't get to say all I wanted to say. I wasn't ready for the for the love of my life to depart, leaving me to try and carry on. Wishing I could share a conversation with you . .Wishful thinking on my part, I am still carrying around a broken heart. Love you Forever, sweetheart.##imported-begin##Beverly##imported-end##

“ He Is Gone
You can remember him and only that he is gone, Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind; be empty and turn your back or you can do what he would want . .
Smile, Open your eyes and your heart, Love, and go on!! I love you Honey##imported-begin##Beverly##imported-end##

“ Someone sent me an email today about frogs (FULLY RELY ON GOD). It triggered a memory you told me your Mom had always collected frogs, and I told you I had always collected frogs too. You said we were so much alike, that I reminded you of your Mom, and it was so endearing to me because I knew how much you loved your Mom. I remember you telling me when you worked at a grocery store on Main Street in Duncanville during high school, there was a nearby florist and you started sending flowers to your Mom. I remember how you sent flowers to me, bought flowers at the grocery store, so I would find them when I got home from work, and when we got married search for an orchid (we didn't find it) but you remembered the orchid you had got me for my prom when I was 16. And the flowers and bears you sent me when I had laryngitis, the florist came, and later came again, and I was running out of room to find a place for the flowers. I have all the precious notes that you left around the house and notes that accompanied the flowers. I love you...##imported-begin##Beverly##imported-end##

“ It's very endearing to me that Dean our minister always called Jerry a Barnabus, because he was an encourager, and he was. He never would turn down an opportunity to meet someone and try to make their life a little brigher. He would go to the hospital to give out balloons or cards and just say hello and offer a prayer if they wanted one, and if they declined, that was o.k. too. He took a challenge to visit a guy Tony at the nursing home, who thought he was too unloveable. . that God wouldn't care about him. Jerry dispelled that fear that God loves us all, anytime and all the time. Tony started to say Have a D#%% good Thanksgiving when we took Thanksgiving dinner to him. Jerry tried to make him comfortable about the slip he made by saying "have you ever been to Hoover Dam, they have those dam guides, and dam tours, and so on. He was still trying to encourage Tony. He was my love of my life!!###imported-begin##Beverly###imported-end##

“ I will never forget the time you and Larry fought over a pack of Dentyne gum. You had to be at least 16 and Larry said you took his gum and the fight was on. You would get Larry down and sit on chest laughing which infuriated him. He would declare "Uncle" and in your good nature you would let him up. As you guys got to your feet the fight was on again. I was so young and scared I had to call mama at the school to come and break yall up. It was a memory I will never forget seeing our mother out there with a broom beating yall apart. She was so mad because she had to leave work.... I think she got the best of both of you that day!!###imported-begin##Ellen Burleson Brown###imported-end##

“ Jerry, you will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved you. What a great sense of humor you had and I always loved hearing your lovingly told family stories. My dad thought the world of you and can enjoy your company once again...let the laughs and jokes begin.
My thoughts and prayers will be with you Beverly as well as Juston, Shana, Ellen and Jon as you say goodbye today.
Rest in peace.
Your cousin, Susan##imported-begin##Susan Bailey Winterhalter##imported-end##

“ We lost our buddy and cousin on October 7, 2010. We'll miss the road trips we took with you and Beverly and the fun we had while we were all together. We'll also miss the countless Aggie jokes you were never without. We know you're healthier and happier now that you're in heaven, but we can't help but be a little selfish and wish you were still with us. We love ya, Jerry, and will remember your wonderful sense of humor and optimistic attitude. We know you'll keep the angels laughing with your endless Aggie jokes. Also, you can rest easy knowing that we'll always be available for Beverly should she ever need us in any way.

Love,

“ Beverly,
I just found out about your loss. My heart goes out to you at this time, and in the days to come. Know that God is with you, and that many people are thinking about you and praying for you as you walk this new road of life. Send me an email, or call if you need a listening ear.

love you!
