“ Glendon and I would sometimes have a phone conversation after he had been busy loading a bull up in a trailer. It would generally be hot outside and he'd be resting by a tree in a chair. Or he'd just finished greasing an 856 the day before he planned to mow a pasture. I sure miss those times of hearing his stories about individual cows. The story about a cow that refused to stay in the pasture and wasn't about to let a fence charger or Glendon stop her. The laughter we'd share and the mental picture formed from his stories were all priceless. Sure do miss you friend.

“ What an Honor to have known Judge Red Haney. An outstanding pillar of the community, always working with Wisdom and Compassion as a Judge, steadfast in doing the right thing. A void is left with his friends, family and colleagues. Rest Well your Honor. "Blessed are the Peacemakers" sayeth the Lord. Amen.

I miss my friend Judge Haney. He was such a great and giving man as I knew him. He helped me in more ways I could ever list. As the person above me says it best, a void is left with him gone. I loved to talk about cattle and tractors with him. Sure miss you friend.

“ *Remembering all the fun times we had in school especially the time Glendon drive that old yellow school bus full of 17 yr olds to New Orleans , Galveston , and back safely. He was only 17 himself. He was so level headed for his age.
Thinking of you and family at this time. God's peace and strength be with you for the days ahead.Peggy Weatherly, George Weatherly*

“ Red was a great friend, always stopping and checking on me, asking about the kids and grandkids. If I ever needed a law question answered, I would always call him. He will surely be missed by me and everyone in Red Oak.
