“ Greg had a strong Christian faith. I felt it every time I got to sing with him. I was always impressed with his sincerity and reverence as he used his musical gifts of singing and playing the guitar. We were the same age. I loved him, his voice and guitar playing. I have a feeling that his participation in God's celestial choir will make that choir sweeter for the praises we will sing in heaven. I think of him often. I will miss Greg.. I share with the Fitzhugh Family my favorite prayer of conciliation.

Prayer of Saint Bede Jarrett, OP.

*We seem to give them back to You, Oh Lord, to You who gave them to us Yet just as You did not lose them in the giving,
so do we not lose them by their return.
Not as the world gives do You give, Oh Lover of souls,
for while You give You do not take away;
and what is Yours is ours also if we are Yours
For life is eternal and love is immortal and death only an horizon, and an horizon is nothing more than the limit of our sight Lift us up, strong Son of God, that we may see further Cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly Draw us close to Yourself, that we may know ourselves to be close to our dear ones who are with You And while You prepare a place for us prepare us also for that happy place so that where You are we too may be evermore*

“ Not many people leave such lasting impressions as Greg. I have to say he was one of the nicest ...absolutely! He was so bright, gifted and loved his family to the moon and back. I am so very sorry to all of his family for your loss...both near and far. You will all be in my prayers.

“ Greg was one of the fun cousins of mine . When I was a young child I would look so forward to being able to leave the high plains (Amarillo area) and come back to Lancaster to my Grandpa Zeke and Grandma Hila home . While there , even if it was only for a few days I would get to hang out with Greg and all of the numerous other cousins of mine . Greg was such a great person to hang out with . I am not sure what he ever thought of me as I had a real mischievous side to me and Greg probably always had to be guarded and on his toes wondering what prank I would pull next . As the years and decades have now just flown by I am so happy and proud to read about Greg’s life and family have been so wonderful and that Greg was a great Godly person . I , like Greg , have come to learn that our time here on earth is merely like that of a blink of an eye compared to the time in eternity . Bless all of Greg’s great family , to all of my cousins (those of us who still remain) and let us all now celebrate the life that Greg had on this earth . He was indeed a unique wonderful person .

“ My earliest meeting of Greg was at the Saturday 5:30pm mass. I can't remember how long ago it was, had to be 25-30 years. The duet of Greg and Phillip May was something out of the era of Peter, Paul, and Mary. Showing their love of the Lord through singing, "invited" everyone to sing. It mattered not how terrible you felt you were, their "key" was always in a range for everyone to "sing". On another note, pun intended, For what ever reason, I have not had the opportunity to see Greg and Georgia at mass in probably 20 years, since we built the PFC. And out of the "blue", two weeks ago this beautiful couple was sitting across the isle from us at St Jo's. It looked as though they were in some type of time warp, they hadn't aged a bit. It was so good to see them. It is if God had this in His Great Plan for this to happen, and I am so glad. Rest well my dear friend. Your loved ones will be taken very good care of by all of us here at St. Joseph's.

“ I met Greg in 2007 when I joined the choir at St Joseph Catholic Church. Greg’s voice was beautiful and I always enjoyed his singing, especially when he was the cantor. His presence in the prolife movement was gentle but yet strong. We will miss his presence greatly. May God rest his soul and bring comfort to Georgia and the rest of the family.
