“Gwennie...never forget my mother piercing your ears. You fainted...came to, got back on that table and told mother to do the other ear. And of course, you fainted again. So many memories of family reunions. You will be so missed and was loved by us all. Prayers and hugs for your family and in the days ahead. God Bless you all and we love you guys. Sharon and Terry what a sweet lady Gwen was, remember her watching my kids after school for a little while and seeing her chinchillas that she raised. She was kind hearted and easy to know and like. We can't know and don't know why Heavenly Father took her home a bit early it seems, but we can be sure He knows.

“ You were always my idol. When we were young I wanted to grow up and look just like you. You are a beautiful person. We have had a lot of fun in the past years especially like taking a shower in the car wash in Houston so we could go to Gillies and when we won first prize singing at that bar in Dallas Oh yeah we also won first prize with our sand sculpture of dolly pardon. Miss you so much but I know you are at peace now. I will be watching for butterfly's and Christmas trees. Love you your baby sis - lavaughn
