“ For a while Harvey came to First Baptist Lancaster -One Mother's Day, he was a row in front of me and I realized he had tears in his eyes and he was sitting alone as I was. When we stood for a song, I went to him and asked if I could sit with him, he smiled and said of course. He whispered that he was thinking of his wife and it made he tear up a bit. We became buddies and sat together whenever he was about to come.

I went to the rehab to see him a few years ago and he didn't quite remember me be we had a nice visit and he told me all about his new dog. He was such a sweet man.

“ Too many wonderful memories to mention here. A loving and thoughtful man. He and Ruby were kid magnets. No matter where they were kids would wind up in their laps -- even kids they did not know. That says it all.
