“ I do not have a specific memory to share, I did not know Heather for a long time nor see her very often lately, but she made an impression. Not sure if it was because she was always nice and always cheerful, or that she laughed at my stupid jokes, or something just intangible. But my heart is sad that she is gone too soon...

“ My heart, condolences and prayers go out to each of you. Though I didnt know Heather I have many friends who do. Each have the same to say about her what a bright spot she was to anyone's day. I can't imagine your pain losing your daughter but I do know lhurtful loss and how love and prayers from others helps shield our heart from a bit of the pain at the time. I pray God holds your family oh so close in the days ahead. I pray her memory is always such a blessing for each of you. God bless you all.
