

Helen Faye Johnson

October 14, 1916 - April 15, 2011

Helen Faye Johnson was born October 14, 1916 in Wilmer, TX to Lell & Willie (Weaver) Johnson. She passed away April 15, 2011. Helen grew up in Wilmer. She attended SMU from 1933-1937. She began her teaching career. In 1965, she and her parents moved to their new home in Lancaster. She was a member of First Baptist Church of Lancaster until her death. Miss Johnson was an only child and "Oh!" how she enjoyed teaching. She loved her pupils very much. She taught in several Dallas schools and retired from T. G. Terry School in 1975 after 38 years. She was a member of Dallas Retired Teachers, Retired Teachers of Texas, and had an Honorary Life Membership in PTA. She was an active volunteer from 1989-1994 at the Inn on the Park Nursing Home in Lancaster. She is survived by several cousins who were very attentive to her. They include Janet Mussina, Joe Ann McIntire, several others, and many friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Miss Johnson was my neighbor when I was a small child in Lancaster. That was well over 34 years ago. She was so kind to me. I will never forget her!###imported-begin##Mark Beeler##imported-end##

December 28, 2011 at 10:11 PM