“ Homer taught by example to be kind to strangers which impressed me. He invited GI's to join in a home cooked meal especially during the holidays. His kindness was truly reflected in his actions. Plus he loved to cook and eat good food!
I remember he would delight in telling stories of his life experiences and elaborate a bit until listeners became aware of his antics. He loved his family, people, and life which was reflected in all he did for family and friends.
I was lucky to have him as my brother-in-law.

“ God Made a Father (by Abigail Stott)

God once made a father his best one of all he was smart loving and determined to come when his kids called

*This father could be serious
he would sometimes get mad
but he was forgiving
when you did something bad*

*This father could be silly
he would tell many jokes
he could be quite annoying when he gave tickles and pokes*

*God gave him to someone but who could it be?
This very lucky person
turned out to be me.*

Memories fill me and bring a smile (and maybe even a giggle) to my heart.

“ I remember Homer and Greta as big high schoolers because we were all on the same campus and us little ones all knew big kids. Do not think they always knew us. When I married in 1961 Homer was the photographer at my wedding. My condolences in his passing but I know he lead a long full life full of love.
