I'm so saddened by this. She was a great patient. Spoiled my daughter with glow in the dark rocks and different fossils. Kind loving person.

“ I went to high school with Jamie in Leadville. She was an awesome friend. I am so sorry she is gone. Way too young. I'll pray for comfort for all those who loved her! I would like to know about services when they are planned.

“ Jamie helped me learn to cope with living in a wheelchair. She flew to Alaska to help me care for my new babies, and when my husband died and I was only 24, she stayed with me and helped me learn to be a single mom. I will owe you, Jamie, for the rest of my life. Tell Donald I love him.

Heather Cranor - April 02, 2014 at 01:06 PM

I didn't know her, but thank you Heather Cranor for telling us about this wonder human being. What a inspirational person she was. May her love live in the hearts that knew her for the rest of there days. You were truly lucky to have her in your lives for the short time that you did. I am sorry for her family and friends loss. May God bless you all and ease your sorrow.
