“ Jane had it all- -looks, charm, wit, talent, I.Q. She was my partner on the high school debate team, and because of her, we went all the way to State competition. Who but Jane could read a quote with conviction from a blank page? Her appeal will be remembered, her talent appreciated, and her friendship treasured.

“ Gretchen,
I am Mrs. Luckie's daughter from Midtowne. We all were so sad to hear about your sweet momma! We will miss her tight hugs, her beautiful smile and her fun-loving dance! I especially enjoyed playing hymns on the piano and having her join in on the singing. No words were found, but she opened her mouth and the beautiful notes came flooding out of her heart. I am blessed to have known her this past year. I know that she must have been an amazing lighthouse her whole life, because her light shone brightly even through her wintertime days .
May God richly bless you,

“ Words cannot say how much Mrs. Wag meant to me. Mrs. Wagner was my 4th grade teacher at West Main in 1984-85. She was “ THE TEACHER” that everyone wanted! Mrs. Wag was always happy, upbeat, and loved her students dearly. Her classroom was amazingly colorful and vibrant, just as her personality. She was full of creativity that easily spilled out onto her kids in the classroom. She was the kind of teacher that kids wanted to please, because she truly cared. I am one of those kids, and I never wanted to work so hard for someone in all of my life. Mrs. Wag was a phenomenal educator and no doubt left her legacy with us. I thank you for being such an inspiration in my life and for helping me become the teacher that I am today. How blessed I was to have called you my teacher, Mrs. Wag! Love you always, You will be missed ❤️

“ Mrs. Wagner was my 4th grade teacher at West Main. She was the reason I pursued education and was an educator in Elementary and Middle schools for 20 years before entering full time pastoral ministry. I will forever remember her love for us as students and the joy she brought to everyone and her love for Ruffles perfume. 🙏❤️

“ Jane the Baptist and I were members at First Baptist Lancaster in the 2000's, and she was always an encourager to me as I taught our Sunday School lesson to the whole department. She always had a smile. My sympathy to her family!

“ I was more than blessed to have Mrs. Wagner for my 3rd and 4th grade teacher at West Main. She was so inspirational and motivating. Her passion for education and her students radiated through her undeniable caring demeanor. She instilled in me a love for reading and writing. She touched many hearts, and I am so glad one was mine. My condolences to her family. Mrs. Wagner was an amazing lady.

“ Jane was one of the most amazing ladies I've ever had the pleasure to know! She made everyone feel so special, from the students she taught to people around her! I loved teaching at West Main with her and having her be my own kids teacher! I learned a lot from her. She was my dear friend and she will truly be missed.
