“ I remember taking our Grandmother to her wedding. She was a beautiful bride and a perfect host when we would visit her home

“ So many memories of my high school days sitting around Winky's table on Dallas Ave. She changed my life. I am the person I am today because of her. She encouraged me to go to Texas Tech and to pursue a career in the theater and show business. She was the first person to believe in my talent and encouraged me to expand upon it. I am so grateful to her. I am grateful to be able to work in the business today. I am very happy that I had the opportunity to let her know. My condolences to the family. Flights of Angels, dearest Winky.

“ Winky was so much a part of my growing up years in Lancaster. I loved watching Clint and Kenny while Winky tackled projects on their historic home on Dallas Avenue. I loved our many chats at her kitchen table and life's lessons that were learned. She did so much for me and made sure that I learned proper etiquette! I loved her passion for theater and music and the history of our home town. She will always hold a very special place in my heart. Love you Winky.

I really enjoyed Wink's restaurant on Town Square, years ago, and was sad when it closed.
