“ We wish to extend our heartfelt condolences to the entire Brown family. We loved him and the family dearly. Many years ago our son and his friend were working with Jerry when he was laying tile. They were carrying the mud or grout for him and maybe tile. They came home saying they were going to quit working for him because they did all the work and he got all the money. Lol. I am sure they were over paid. We will all miss him.

“ Jerry Brown I thank the good Lord for blessing you with a beautiful daughter and for you giving me her hand in marriage! She has a whole lot of you in her, love, mercy and faith! Your love for Jesus is evident of the fruit you revealed. As a young man Thank you for instilling in me a work ethic that help form the success in business. I'm sure that as you entered into the throne of the Lord he had open arms and said to you “ well done my good and faithful servant”! Your favorite son in law Edward 😊

“ To The Brown family we are saddened by your loss and our hearts are broken💔 just want you to know that your dad, grandpa was loved by many and was a very respectful man to our family. There were 2 perfect people in this world one was my mom Lucia Guerra and the other your dad, grandpa Jerry Brown, they can't ever be replaced.😞 We will rejoice in that he is dancing in paradise with our Lord and Savior🙏. Thank you Jesus for letting us have Mr. Brown in our lives for so many good years with good memories to cherish. Although he will be missed dearly I find peace in that we will see him again one day. MY MEMORY OF HIM IS NOT ONLY WAS HE PERFECT IN MY EYES BUT THAT HE CALLED ME HIS BAYLOR ANGEL😇😭. We Love you and are praying for Peace in your hearts🙏 Love Irene Guerra Martinez & Family💋❤️
