“ Jesse words cannot express the pain and loneliness that I feel since you both have been gone. I miss you both so very much. I would trade my life for y'all's in a split second without ever thinking twice. I hope you know just how much I love and miss you and what I would do to get one more hug from you and Junior and just to hear y'all say mom one more time. I miss hearing y'all laugh I miss the phone calls and I just wish I could have one more day to make sure that I showed you and you knew without one single doubt how much I loved you. Merry Christmas I hope y'all are having fun without a care in the world and I hope you are both just as happy as anyone could be. Christmas isn't the same matter of fact not one day is the same since y'all left and will never be the same again. I just hold on to knowing that the day will come when I will get to hold you both again. I love you

I sure am missing you boys ALOT today. You have no idea what I would do to get a hug from you again, to hear your voice one more time, or I would even settle for a phone phone call. I just need you boys so badly. My heart is literally dying a little more everyday without yall. I love you!

“ Hey nik nik! Yep it's me again! This is so crazy to me to have to write you and Junior on here just to feel like y'all will here me or read it whenever you get the chance. I just got done telling nanny that I hope that I was right and that whenever you 2 get done fishing or get done doing whatever it is that you do up there that I hope y'all do read these. I wish I could hear about your day again or I even wish that you would ask me to borrow some money again. Although, right now I would have to tell you that you might want to go and ask your nanny because I am broke and don't have it right no! Lol. I still wish I had that chance. I just got done telling Junior that I took life and the days that you were here with me for granted just assuming that you would always be here or that you always knew how much I loved you or why I did some of the things that I did or whatever the case may be. But I promise you if given the chance again I wouldn't be setting here wondering or hoping that you knew I would know without a doubt that I spent every day and moment that I had showing you how much you are loved and always will be. I miss you boys so much more than I could ever put into words. You two take care of each other up there and always keep watch over us cause as you know Lexi and I don't always make the best decisions. Lol. Goodnight. Sweet dreams. Don't let the bed bugs bite. Say your prayers. I love you.

Ps - If y'all ever get tired of me writing you just let me know. Even though I still won't stop. I love you “ Oh how I miss you so sweet boy. Please take care of our Junior boy. I know it must have been making you crazy being up the without him and not being able to watch over and take care of him. I wish more than anything that I still had you both here, so I could wrap you up so tight in my arms. I promise I wouldn't let a day go by without showing you both how very special and important you both are to me! I miss y'all so much and hate waking up with regrets as to what I would have done differently if given just one more chance to show you guys just how important and how much you mean to me. I love you both more than words could begin to explain.

“ *Jesse wanted to become a millionaire and take care of all those who have taken care of him.
He loved life and wanted to live.
He was one of the sweetest people in the world and just wanted his family and to be loved.
He was very blessed and very much a blessing.
I pray that I dream of him and we get to talk.
I hate that we didnt get to say goodbye and i hope that he thinks that everything i told him about heaven is so much less than i explained.
Family is everyone who helped raise this sweet boy i am praying for God to comfort us all.
Jesse and I had conversation about a week ago about all the fishing we did and he remembered it being fun.
I am glad to know he had those memories.
I love you Jesse, I will miss you so much til I see you again.
Love Nanny*
