

Jewel Cromaz

February 12, 1923 - October 13, 2015

Jewel Cromaz, of Lancaster, Texas was born February 12, 1923 in Elliott, Arkansas to parents Boyce Bolden Lindley and Elsie Gooch Lindley. She was the oldest of two children. Jewel graduated from Tilghman High School in Paducah, Kentucky in 1941, where she was a member of the dance team. Tap dancing, singing, and songwriting were her favorite activities. She married Victor Cromaz on June 12, 1943 and they celebrated 71 years of marriage. Jewel especially loved helping others through church activities, and bowling was a favorite activity that she and Vic shared. Jewel and Vic were blessed with four children, Danny, Eddie, Sally, and Karen. Jewel dedicated her life to her family and to St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Lancaster, Texas, where she was a charter member. Over the years, Jewel was active in the Altar Society and the religious education program. Her proudest achievement was receiving the Bishop's Award in February 2015 from the Diocese of Dallas for her service to the church.

Jewel is survived by her son Eddie Cromaz, daughter Sally Murphy and her husband Pat, daughter Karen Bauswell and her husband Chris, daughter-in-law Drena Cromaz, brother Charles Lindley and his wife Della, nephew David Lindley and his wife Rosie, and nephew Gary Lindley and his wife Betty. She is also survived by six grandchildren, Laura Coleman and her husband Louis, Michael Cromaz, Jamie Gorden and her fiancé Brocke, Sarah Gorden, Kathryn Bauswell, and Collin Bauswell. Jewel was blessed with two great-grandchildren Calle Coleman and Justin Coleman.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Victor Cromaz, and her eldest son, Danny Cromaz.

“ I just today learned of Jewel's passing. I was so glad to know Vic and Jewel both. They were the sweetest couple. They were so proud of their children. I felt that I had met each of them by the stories I heard.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go to the family during this time. Jewel was a very kind and sweet lady, and supported the church. She will be greatly missed, but I am sure she is very happy to be reunited with her husband.

“ Please accept our condolences to the family of Jewel. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Jewel was a lovely, sweet lady. One of the sweetest I've ever known. Jewel and her husband Victor were instrumental in our choosing to go to St. Francis of Assisi Church in Lancaster with their friendliness and making us feel as part of the family of this church. May Jewel rest in peace with our Lord and that she's now with her beloved husband Victor. We will sorely miss Jewel.
