“ I remember going to grandma Jewel's house as a child. She was always so good to us children. When we would come over she would take us over to Dairy Queen and get us a blizzard and tell us not to tell our parents just like a grandma would. She would sit us down and show us her stamp collections and pictures, just to see our amazed expressions... just like a grandma would. And she would find anything excuse in the book, just to spend time with us... just like a grandma would.

I remember her car always smelling like wintergreen gum and her fridge always being loaded up with goodies for us children when we'd come and visit. She would always take the time to spend time with us even when she wasn't feeling well. Even though I wasn't born into the family, she still claimed me as her own. She was a great and wonderful grandma to all three of us and she will be missed dearly.##imported-begin##Kimberly Readnour##imported-end##
